

MID-ATLANTIC Thoroughbred

THE THOROUGHBRED BIBLE
OF THE MID-ATLANTIC REGION

THE THOROUGHBRED BIBLE OF THE MID-ATLANTIC Advertisers and readers agree

“As a reader, I find myself eagerly awaiting the arrival of the Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred. Its coverage of the region is unequalled in the industry, and it offers unique insights into the issues faced by tracks, horsemen and breeders. As an advertiser, we believe the Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred is the single best means of reaching our most important market, the Mid-Atlantic region.”

JOSEPH P. (JOSH) PONS JR.
CO-OWNER-MGR., COUNTRY LIFE FARM
PAST PRESIDENT, MARYLAND HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

“There is no racing publication I enjoy reading more than the Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred. It covers all the bases in the region when it comes to Thoroughbred racing. And it’s enjoyable to read and full of information.”

KING T. LEATHERBURY
LEADING TRAINER, WITH MORE THAN 5,000 WINS
BREEDER AND PAST PRESIDENT OF MHBA

“People read Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred. I know because of the response we get to our advertising. If readers rely on a magazine, they rely on its advertising. This magazine is perfect for this region. Horsemen look forward to its arrival because not only is it professionally written, entertaining and full of useful information, but it simply pertains more to their business than any other publication.”

MARK DEANE
FIELD DIRECTOR, VTA; FORMER MANAGER OF BLUE RIDGE FARM, VA

“In my mind, Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred is a top regional publication. It fills the void left by the nationals, whose news often has little or no bearing on what’s going on in our area, and whose advertisers are located too far away for practical business dealings. Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association provides all its members with a subscription to Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred. We utilize the magazine as a vehicle for our newsletter, and participate frequently on editorial and statistical reviews and features of happenings in the Mid-Atlantic region. I am convinced the magazine supplies our area with the news necessary to those involved with Thoroughbreds, and heartily endorse it.”

MARK A. MCDERMOTT
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, PHBA

“This magazine focuses on a Thoroughbred industry which knows no state boundaries. It has a huge fill-in advantage, keeping readers informed about their own state and the surrounding region.”

RODGER LEGG
PENNSYLVANIA BREEDER; HEAD OF DELAWARE HORSEMEN’S GROUP

“I think this is a great publication. It serves a purpose, is reputable for the region, and horsemen find it tremendously useful. Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred fills a big void.”

MICHAEL MOTION
RESPECTED VIRGINIA HORSEMAN, BREEDER, TRAINER AND MANAGER

MID-ATLANTIC THOROUGHBRED—YOUR WINDOW ON THE REGION

TARGET MARKETING IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS

The seven-state Mid-Atlantic region encompasses a contiguous market for Thoroughbred racing and breeding. This regional market includes nearly 100,000 Thoroughbred horses, over a thousand breeding farms, nearly a thousand stallions, major tracks with Thoroughbred pari-mutuel racing days, and countless point-to-point steeplechasing sites.

That this vibrant regional market crosses and overlaps state borders is borne out both by the annual movement of broodmares to stallions within these states and by the almost-daily movement of race horses from tracks in one state to those in another.

Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred

This is a magazine created expressly to work with each state to raise its profile and to promote the region. The editorial coverage is focused entirely on Thoroughbred racing and breeding. In addition to serving regional breeders and horsemen, the goal of Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred is to enable the industry in these seven states to define, promote and market itself within the region, the nation and the world. The approach is not to de-emphasize the individual states, but to enhance their collective image.

REACH EVERY OWNER, BREEDER AND TRAINER IN THE REGION

Our circulation of more than 10,000 includes the members of state breed associations in all seven states, every owner and trainer licensed by state racing commissions in Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia, and the entire membership of the National Steeplechase Association.
